

Alternate Testing Site Information

You have been swabbed for the novel Coronavirus (COVID-19).

Complete test results should be expected in 24 - 96 hours from the time your specimen was taken.

You should continue to self-isolate according to the attached CDC instructions until you are notified of testing results.

If you have any questions, please seek guidance from your physician or medical provider.

Thank you.

Alternate Testing Site Information

You have been swabbed for the novel Coronavirus (COVID-19).

Complete test results should be expected in 24 - 96 hours from the time your specimen was taken.

You should continue to self-isolate according to the attached CDC instructions until you are notified of testing results.

If you have any questions, please seek guidance from your physician or medical provider.

Thank you.